Friends of the Library Book Sale

Starting June 7

Looking for beach reads for the long and lazy days of summer? The Friends of the Topsfield Library is the perfect opportunity to find books to keep you reading all summer long! The book sale begins on Wednesday, June 7 at noon and continues Thursday, June 8 from 10 am to 8 pm, Friday, June 9 from noon to 5 pm and Saturday, June 10 from 10 am to 5 pm. The Friends will also have a table of books for sale at the Strawberry Festival.

Wednesday is for Mahjongg!

Wednesdays

Meeting Room, 2 - 4:45 pm

It doesn't matter whether you're a new player or an experienced player, all are welcome to join this group! We play American Mahjongg and have extra 2017 cards if you haven't bought yours yet.

Walking the Appalachian Trail

Monday, June 21

7 pm

Erica Thatcher Busa will talk about her exciting trip from Springer Mountain in Georgia to Mount Katahdin in Maine. She will share breath-taking pictures and some of her hiking gear. This program is part of the Life is Good community read celebrating the Superpower of Courage and is sponsored by a grant from the Topsfield Cultural Council.

Friends of the Library Annual Meeting and Author Talk

Monday, June 19

Gould Barn, 6:30 pm

The Friends of the Topsfield Library invite you to their annual meeting and author talk. The event will begin with a short Friends' business meeting to be followed by a presentation from author Hallie Ephron. Her new novel, You'll Never Know, Dear, "tells the story of a little girl's disappearance and the porcelain doll that may hold the key to her fate. Reviewers call her novels "deliciously creepy," "Hitchcockian," and "unputdownable." Find her every day blogging on Jungle Red Writers (<http://jungleredwriters.com>). Light Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome!
